

Saints Athletics Club – Media Policy

Use of Club Member Images and Names

Currently registered athletes and members of the Saints Athletics Club may be photographed or filmed while training with a club coach or during competition. These images may be used to for internal training purposes or to be shared publicly. This includes on the club website, club videos, social media and other club promotional materials. Names may also be used in club communications and may be used alongside these images. Athletes' images and names may still be used after their membership to the Saints Athletics Club expires.

Internal Communications

The Saints Athletics Club primarily uses emails and a private Facebook group to communicate with its members. Messages sent through these channels must have relevance to the Saints Athletics Club. Unauthorised advertisements or self-promotion material will be blocked or removed. Members who wish to advertise to the club's members must seek permission from the committee.

Exemptions

Currently registered athletes or members who do not wish for their name or image to be used on the Club's platforms should contact the club secretary. All reasonable actions will be taken to ensure those athletes' images and names are not used.

Use of Images and Names by Athletics South Australia (ASA)

Club members should note upon registering with ASA they agree to a set of terms and conditions. This document stipulates that you acknowledge and consent for ASA to use your image and name on their communication platforms. This is a separate agreement between the registering athlete and ASA. Club members are encouraged to read this document. ASA does provide for registering athletes to opt out of this clause.
